

A DEDICATED AND COMMITTED TEAM

Every day, our team members embody the values of dedication, solidarity, and enthusiasm that define Scleroderma Quebec.

Together with its ecosystem of collaborators, partners, and devoted volunteers, they work hard to fulfill its mission:

Enabling people living with the disease to improve their quality of life

Raising funds to support cutting-edge scleroderma research

Developing tools for patients, the general public and health professionals on a variety of scleroderma-related topics

Advocating on behalf of its patient community.
